Wilmington Police Department - Early Morning Accident Leaves Multiple Cars Damaged

Wednesday, July 23, 2014 - 12:00 p.m.

WILMINGTON, NC - An early morning accident left one man injured and several cars damaged on S. College Road this morning.

Around 6:26 a.m. police responded to the intersection of South College Road & Park Avenue to investigate a traffic crash involving two vehicles. Police say the accident happened when the driver of a GMC truck failed to yield the right-of-way while traveling west on Park Avenue. The vehicle crashed into a mini pick-up truck that was traveling north on South College Road causing it to flip over and crash into three cars at a near-by car dealership. The driver of the pick-up truck sustained injuries and was transported to Cape Fear Memorial Hospital.

58-year-old William L. Reynolds was cited for Failing to Yield the Right-of-Way. Police estimate the crash caused more than $30,000 worth of damage.
